

Be a Ray of Sunshine

Anna Belle Russell, 1917

George Coles Stebbins

$\text{♩} = 140$

1. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go, Shin-ing for the Sav-ior
 2. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Com-fort bring to o-thers,
 3. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Cheer-ful-ness is need-ed,
 4. Be a ray of sun-shine ev-ery-where you go; Stars will shine the bright-er with a stead-y glow; Bring-ing smiles to sad ones, wip-ing tears astoop to raise the low; Kind words cost but lit-tle, smiles bring plea-sures, this you can be-stow; Help to chase the sha-dows from this world a-in your crown, I know; Sun-shine brought to o-thers will re-lect on

Be a ray of sun-shine filled with Heav-en's

Fine Refrain

- way, Make your-self a bless-ing ev-ery pass-ing day. too; They may lift a bur-den; let them not be few. Be a ray of
 - way, Bring-ing joy and glad-ness like a shin-ing ray.
 you, Heav'n will be the sweet-er— keep the end in view.

light, Send-ing forth a mess-age beau-ti-ful and bright.

D.S. al Fine

sun-shine ev-ery-where you go, Shin-ing for the Sav-ior with a stead-y glow;