

The Children's Savior

R. P. Clark, ca. 1867

William Batchelder Bradbury

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. Je - sus is our lov - ing Sav - ior, He, our best, our con - stant friend;
2. Je - sus is the child - ren's Sav - ior! 'Twas for them He shed His blood;
3. Je - sus is the child - ren's Sav - ior! "Suf - fer them," He says, "to come."
4. Lov - ing suff - ering, dy - ing Sav - ior! Ris - en, glor - ious on Thy throne,

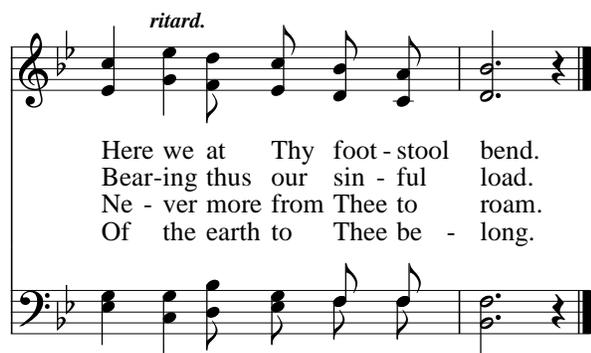

In His ser - vice life is plea - sure, For He lov - eth to the end.
Died, that poor and need - y sin - ners Might be re - con - ciled to God.
If they seek His face and fa - vor, They shall share His heav'n - ly home.
Haste the day when ev - ery i - dol Shall by truth be o - ver - thrown.

Lov - ing Sav - ior, lov - ing Sav - ior, Here we at Thy foot - stool bend,
Dy - ing Sav - ior! Dy - ing Sav - ior! Bear - ing thus our sin - ful load,
Ris - en Sav - ior! Ris - en Sav - ior! Ne - ver more from Thee to roam,
And the king - doms, and the king - doms Of the earth to Thee be - long,

ritard.

Here we at Thy foot - stool bend.
Bear - ing thus our sin - ful load.
Ne - ver more from Thee to roam.
Of the earth to Thee be - long.