

Disciples of All Nations

Richard W. Adams, 2000

Lowell Mason, 1823

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Di - sci - ples of all na - tions, The Lord calls us to make, Bap-
 2. Like Sam - uel in the tem - ple, When came the mid - night call, O-
 3. Like Gid - eon of Ma - nas - seh, We think our - selves too small, But
 4. As Ab - ra - ham gave I - saac, As par - ents so may we Be
 5. As Mo - ses stood in E - gypt, And God gave words to speak, So 6. Like Sam - son con - se - crat - ed, If we stay true to God, He 7. Like Paul, there may be suf - fer - ing, And heav - y the de - mands, But

- tiz - ing new be - liev - ers And mak - ing i - dols shake. He shows us the ex -
 - bed - ient to his mas - ter, He hur - ried down the hall. Not ful - ly un - der - God the Lord is with us, A tower that can - not fall. We need no might - y asked to give our child - ren For ser - vice full and free. If asked, then, do not will He give us bold - ness, Though we be frail and weak. His Spir - it will em - gives us strength and pow - er, The Spir - it's might - y rod. But if we fall a - heed not the re - ject - ion, And hold to His com - mands. "Teach all that I have

- am - ples, Of how we should re - spond, In Scrip - ture stor - ies glor - ious Of
 - stand - ing, Ig - nor - ing an - y fears, He gave cour - ag - eous an - swer, "Speak, ar - my, No wea - pons made of man; Watch God sup - ply the help - ers, And fal - ter, But send them on their way To spread the wond - rous tid - ings, That
 - power us To reach the sin - ner's heart And bring the lost to Je - sus, As
 - way, then, Our weak - ness will re - turn; So pray, stay loy - al, faith - ful, And taught you, As wit - ness - es be true; Tell all the world My Gos - pel, And ser - vants now long gone.

 Lord, Your ser - vant hears."
 then re - veal the plan.
 night may turn to day.
 des - tined from the start.
 God His might will lend.
 I will be with you."