

The God of Holiness and Love

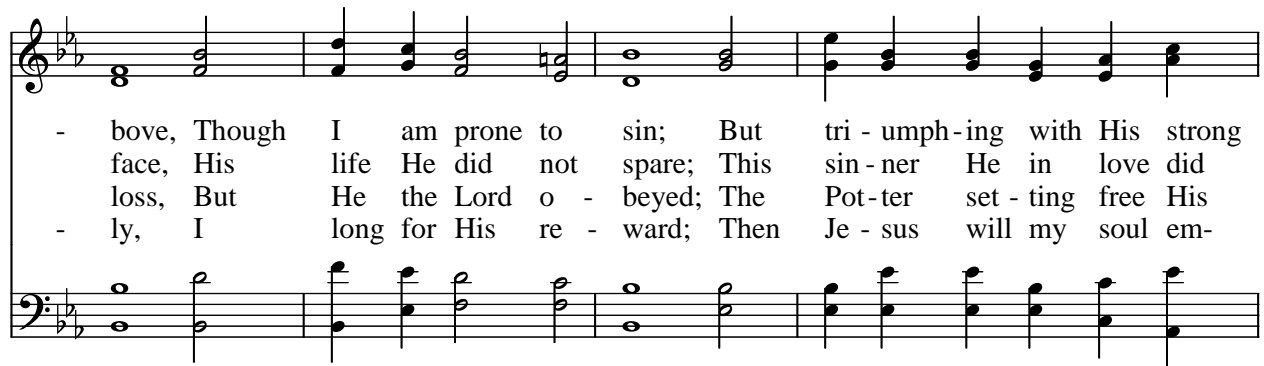

Daniel Borges & Richard W. Adams, 2005

Lowell Mason, 1839

$\text{♩} = 140$

1. The God of ho - li - ness and love, His faith - ful - ness I see a -
2. Oh, Je - sus' light and bound - less grace! How blest was I to see His
3. Yes, Je - sus di - ed upon the cross, To some it seems but pain and
4. In that ce - les - tial home I'll see My bro - thers, sis - ters, fa - mi -

- bove, Though I am prone to sin; But tri - umph - ing with His strong face, His life He did not spare; This sin - ner He in love did loss, But He the Lord o - beyed; The Pot - ter set - ting free His
- ly, I long for His re - ward; Then Je - sus will my soul em - hand, I know with me He'll e - ver stand, Till I reach Beu - lah seek, En - ab - ling me His Word to speak, I walk as child and clay, To li - ve a - bove in end - less day, With love that can - not

- brace, A crown of life my sins re - place, As long as I be -

Land.
heir.
fade.
- lieve!