1. All round the earth, what wea - ry hearts are ach - ing, And
 2. Lo! ships are plough - ing far, on ev - ery o - cean, And
 3. Star of earth's night, great Her - ald of the morn - ing, We
 4. Lift Thou the sha - dows fill - ing thick a - round us, Lord, heav'n - ward go what clouds of se - cret sighs; What lone - ly, la - den sails of traf - fic filled by ev - ery breeze; When will God's peo - ple, see Thy sign glow in th'ho - ri - zon there; Fresh cour - age take, all show Thy - self, and lead Thy peo - ple on! Break Thou the fet - ters ones from sin are wak - ing, Turn - ing to God, their ea - ger, hun - gry eyes. clothed with like de - vo - tion, Send Gos - pel balm to bring the bur - dened ease?

 pains and per - ils scorn - ing, And bring our gifts to Thee, with praise and prayer.
 that in sin have bound us, And sin and sor - row shall from earth be gone.

Refrain

Her - alds of Je - sus, her - alds of light, Go where the lost are found; Bind up each bleed - ing wound, Go where the dark - ness is, Drive back the night.
