

I'm Glad I'm One of Them

Isaiah G. Martin, 1906

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. There are peo - ple al - most ev - ery - where, Whose
2. Though these peo - ple may not learn - èd be, Nor
3. They were ga - thered in the up - per room, All 4. Come, my bro - ther seek this bless - ing That will hearts are all a - flame With the fire that fell at Pent - e - cost, Which boast of world - ly fame, They have all re - ceived their Pent - e - cost Through pray - ing in His name, They were bap - tized with the Ho - ly Ghost, And cleanse your heart from sin, That will start the joy bells ring - ing And will cleansed and made them clean; It is burn - ing now with - in my heart— All faith in Je - sus' name; And are tell - ing now, both far and wide, His power for serv - ice came; No - w what He did for them that day He'll keep the soul a - flame; It is burn - ing now with - in my heart— All

Refrain

glo - ry to His name— And I'm glad that I can say I'm one of them.
power is yet the same, And I'm glad that I can say I'm one of them. One of do for you the same, And I'm glad that I can say I'm one of them.
glo - ry to His name— And I'm glad that I can say I'm one of them.

them, one of them, I am glad that I can say I'm one of them.
 One of them, one of them say I'm one of them.

