

Laurels, Fresh Laurels

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1867

William Batchelder Bradbury

♩=105      1st and 2d Semi-Chorus      Refrain

1. Laur - els, fresh      laur - els, for the      Sun - day School we      bring;      They will
 2. Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," for the      Sun - day School to      wear;      All may
 3. Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," then a -      wake the song a -      new.      They will bloom in      fade - less      ver - dure      Through a      calm e - ter - nal      spring;      Then win the      pre - cious      gar - land,      All the      flam - ing crown      may wear;      The make you      good and      gen - tle,      You will      love and      praise them,      too;      Oh, glad - ly hail with a      pure de - light,      Oh,      hail our beau - ti - ful      wreath so bright;

 smile of hope and the      dew of prayer,      Has      made this beau - ti - ful      wreath so fair.
 meet in hea - ven the      heart so true,      That      twined the beau - t - iful      wreath for you.

Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," for the      Sun - day School, for the      Sun - day School,
 Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," for the      Sun - day School, for the      Sun - day School, Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," then a -      wake the song,      then a -      wake the song.

Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," for the      Sun - day School we      bring.
 Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," for the      Sun - day School to      wear.
 Laur - els, "Fresh      Laur - els," then a -      wake the song      so      new.