

Look for Me!

Charles Austin Miles, circa 1905

$\text{♩} = 113$

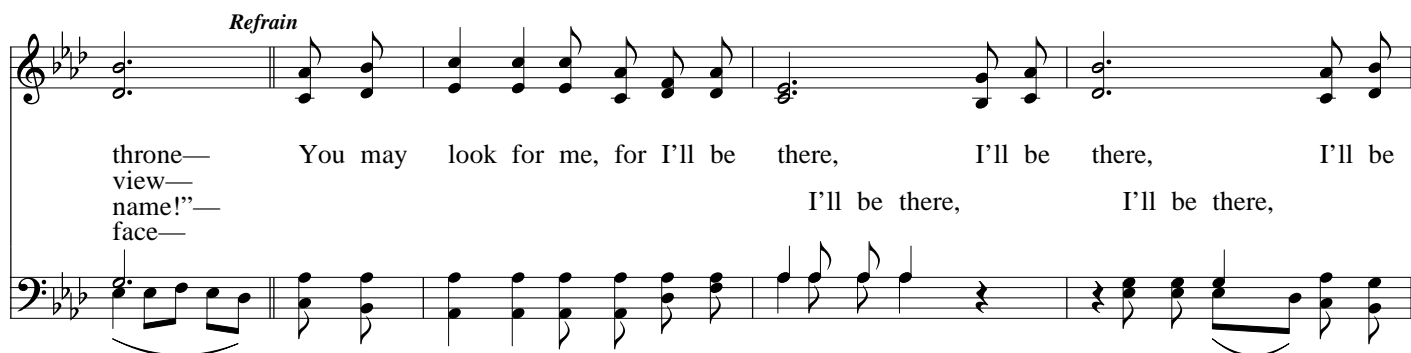

1. When you get to Heav - en, as you sure - ly will, If the Sav - ior's name you
2. When you roam with friends a - cross the heav'n-ly fields, Ev - er find - ing trea - sures
3. When you hear them sing - ing, round the great white throne, Songs of praise un - to the
4. When you kneel in wor - ship to the King of kings, Who has saved you by His own, Af - ter you have greet-ed those you love the best, Who are stand-ing round the new; When you stand in rap - ture on some star - ry height, Gaz - ing on some glor - ious Lamb; When you hear the ran - somed, with their harps of gold, Shout-ing, "Glo-ry to His grace; When you see that Sav - ior who has brought you there, And with joy be - hold His throne— You may look for me, for I'll be there, I'll be there, I'll be view—

Refrain

name!"— I'll be there, I'll be there,
face—

there! You may look for me, for I'll be there! Glo-ry to His name!
I'll be there, I'll be there!