1. O come and go with me, If from sin you would be free;
2. Many will not en - ter in, For they want to cling to sin,
3. Our lead - er is the Lord, And we have His pre - cious Word;
4. Now won't you come and go, While He's plead - ing with you so,
5. But if you still re - fuse, And keep try - ing to ex - cuse,

You will find it good for thee, O - ver Jor-dan. 'Tis a land of corn and wine,
And their jour - ney won't be - gin, O - ver Jor-dan. And they see the gi - ants there,
We will use it for our sword, O - ver Jor-dan. So you need not ev - er fear,
Where the milk and hon - ey flow, O - ver Jor-dan. If you'll get the "se - cond grace,"
And His prom - ise will a - buse, O - ver Jor-dan, You will wan - der wear - y years,

And there's fruit of ev - ery kind; You will find it is sub - lime,
For their vi - sion is not clear, And they will not go for fear,
For He's prom - ised to be near, And you'll find Him ve - ry dear,
You'll be talk - ing face to face, While you're run - ning in the race,
And be shed - ding bit - ter tears, While you're bound to slav - ish fears, This

Refrain

O - ver Jor-dan.
O - ver Jor-dan.
O - ver Jor-dan. O - ver Jor - dan, o - ver Jor - dan, O it is a plea - sant place,
O - ver Jor-dan.
side of Jor-dan.

For I have the "se-cond grace."

O - ver Jor-dan's roll-ing sand In-to hap-py Beu-lah land,

'Tis a plea-sant place to live, O - ver Jor-dan.
