

Saul's Journey to Damascus

James A. Buchanan, 1895

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. When the peo - ple of God were wor - ship - ping, In Da - mas - cus not far o'er the
 2. Then he said, "Who art Thou, Lord, I pray, And what wilt Thou now have me to
 3. Then straight way did the chief of sin - ners go To re - ceive God's own word thro' His
 4. Guilt - y sin - ner, the Lord is call - ing thee; Will you hear while the voice still doth way, From the blood - thirst - y throng at Je - ru - sa - lem, Jour - neyed Saul to bring them a - do?" And the Lord said to him, "A - rise, I say, 'Twill be told thee what thou must Son; Bless - èd word which is life to the sin - sick soul, From the cross to the bright gold - en cry? Will you take His sal - va - tion so great and free, While e - ter - nity's draw - ing so

Refrain

- way. As he jour - neyed he heard a voice say, "Saul, oh, Saul, why per - se - cut - est do."
 crown.
 nigh? Will you hear while the voice is calling now, "Oh, sin - ners, oh, wilt thou come to Me? I am the Lord of Heav'n and earth, I am Je - sus, who died on the tree."

 Me? I am thy light and sav - ing power, I am Je - sus, who died on the tree."