

There's a Work for Each of Us

A.A.A., 1878

James McGranahan

J=95

1. Our Mas-ter has tak - en His jour-ney To a coun - try that's fa - r a - 2. In this "lit-tle while," doth it mat-ter, As we work, and we watch, and we
 3. There's on - ly one thing should conc - ern us, T - o find just the task that is
 4. Our Mas-ter is com - ing most sure-ly, T - o reck - on with ev - er - y

- way, And has left us the care of the vine - yard, T - o work for Him day by wait; If we're fill - ing the place He as - signs us, Be its s - er - vice small or ours; An - d then, hav - ing found it, to do it all of our God - giv'n one; Shall we then count our toil or our sor - row, If His se - n - tence be, "Well

Refrain

day.
 great. There's a work for me and a work for you, Some-thing for each of us pow'rs.
 done"?

now to do, Yes, a work for me and a work for you, Some-thing for each of us now to do.