

We Will Walk thru the Streets of the City

Garfield Thomas Haywood (1880-1931)

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. We now walk thru the val - ley and sha - dow, Thru a world full of la - bor and
2. There'll be no more pain, sin, sickness nor sor - row In that ci - ty where nights ne - ver
3. From the North, East and West they shall en - ter; From the South, too, a host shall a -
4. Then we'll wade thru God's e - ter - nal glo - ry, Thru the fields of His un - end - ing
5. Let us then be kind, true and faith-ful, To our Sav - ior, Re - deem - er and strife; But some day we shall walk with our Sav - ior Robed in ev - er - last - ing life.

Refrain

- come; Where the an - gel of death ne - ver en - ters In our blest e - ter - nal home. We will rise; Then will child - ren of A - bra - ham ga - ther To hold a re - un - ion in the skies.
love; View - ing scenes ev - er ris - ing be - fore us Eter - ni - ty a - lone can prove, King; Do - ing all He gives us to do glad-ly, And His prais - es ev - er sing.

walk thru the streets of the ci - ty, Where our loved ones have gone on be - fore; We will of the ci - ty have gone on be - fore;

go thru the gates of the ci - ty, En - ter to go out no more.
of the ci - ty, no more.