

Christmas Music

Marian Froelich, 1883

G. Froelich

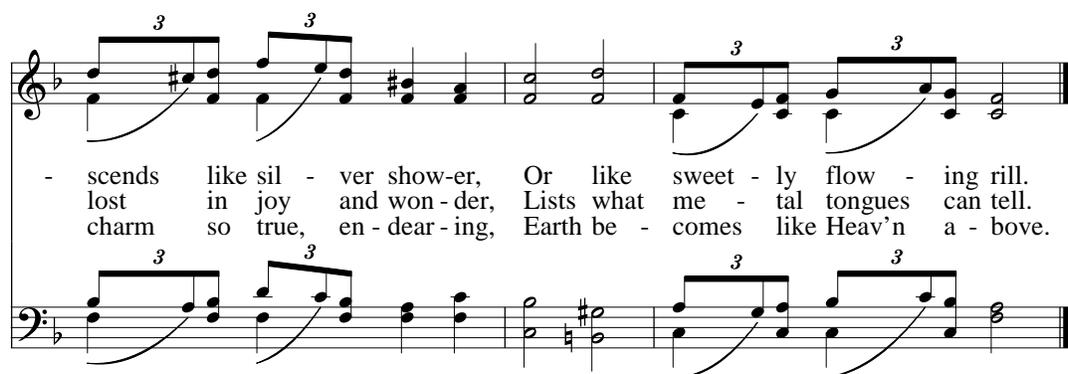

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Christ - mas mu - sic mer - ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark!
 2. Christ - mas mu - sic mer - ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark!
 3. Christ - mas mu - sic mer - ri - ly wakes the e - choes; Hark! hark!

how it freights the air; While the storm-king holds his wild - est re - vels, over the ci - ty's streets; Peal - ing clear - ly while the snow is fall - ing, sound - ing far and near; Hap - py child - ren lend their flute - like voic - es,

Flings, flings snow - drifts ev - ery - where; From the bel - fry
 Pure, pure cover - ing all it meets; The ca - thed - ral's Praise, praise Christ - mas joy and cheer; Sweet - est mu - sic in the tow - er, In the cha - pel on the hill, Har - mo - ny de - deep - toned thun - der Joins a sweet - ly chim - ing bell, And the pass - er, of the heart - strings, Swept by fin - gers skilled by love, Gives to life a

- scends like sil - ver show-er, Or like sweet - ly flow - ing rill.
lost in joy and won - der, Lists what me - tal tongues can tell.
charm so true, en - dear - ing, Earth be - comes like Heav'n a - bove.