

Tenderly the Savior Listened

J. W. Walton, 1888

J. W. Walton

♩=92

1. Ten-der-ly the Sav - ior list-ened To the voice of grief or pain; Oft His eyes with
 2. Si - lent-ly en - dured the Sav-ior Cru-el taunts, the scourge, the cross, For His heav'n-ly
 3. Was it not e - nough, O Sav-ior, For us sin - ful men to die? Spite of all our tear-drops glist-ened, No one sought His help in vain. Now, a - mid the choirs of Hea-ven, Fa - ther's fa - vor Count-ing all things else but loss. Thus may I, thro' pain or sor - row, ill be - hav - ior, Thou dost plead for us on high! In the light of such com-pas - sion,

Still He hears our faint-est prayer; May this grace to me be giv-en, Thy de - vo - tion Calm-ly walk with - out a - larm. From Thy pa - tience let me bor - row, Lean - ing si - lent Shall I not for - giv - en be? Let Thy free and full sal - va - tion Mag - ni - fy it - let me share.

 on Thine arm. "Swift to hear, slow to speak": Lord, in this Thy grace I seek; "Slow to wrath," O
 - self in me.

may I be, Dear-est Sav-ior, more like Thee!

