

The Great Judgment Day

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1882

John Robson Sweney

♩=93

1. You are un - der con - dem - na - tion, care - less sin - ner, And the
 2. There's a judg - ment fast ap - proach - ing, care - less sin - ner, And re-
 3. There's a judg - ment fast ap - proach - ing, care - less sin - ner, If you 4. There's a world where al lthe right - eous shall be ga - thered, And an-

judg - ment day is sure - ly draw - ing near; If you tram - ple un - der foot re - deem - ing
 - mem - ber there's a death that ne - ver dies; Oh, the wail - ing of the lost who feel its sin a - way the pre - cious time of grace; You will call up - on the rocks to fall up -
 - o - ther of re - morse and end - less pain; If you die with - out the cleans - ing blood of

Refrain

mer - cy, What a sen - tence then your guil - ty soul will hear. an - guish; To its hor - ror will you dare to close your eyes? "De - part from My pre - sence," the
 - on you, And to hide you from a slight - ed Sav - ior's face.
 Je - sus, Then for - ev - er with the lost you must re - main.

Judge will pro - claim, "De - part from My pre - sence in - to ev - er - last - ing flame!" Oh, es - cape this aw - ful doom; cling to Je - sus while you may, And pre - pare to meet your Sav - ior on the great judg - ment day.