

Redeemed by the Blood

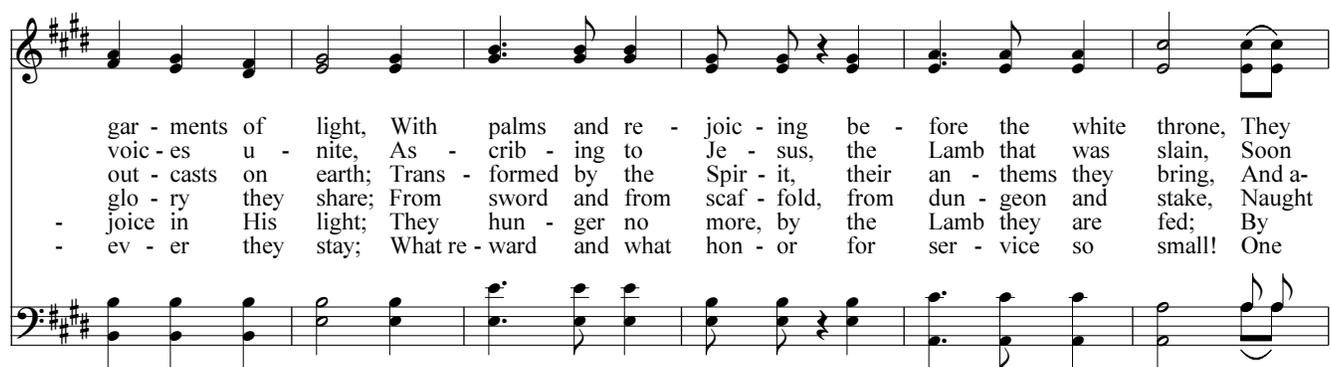

Martin Wells Knapp, 1901

Arranged by Robert E. McNeill

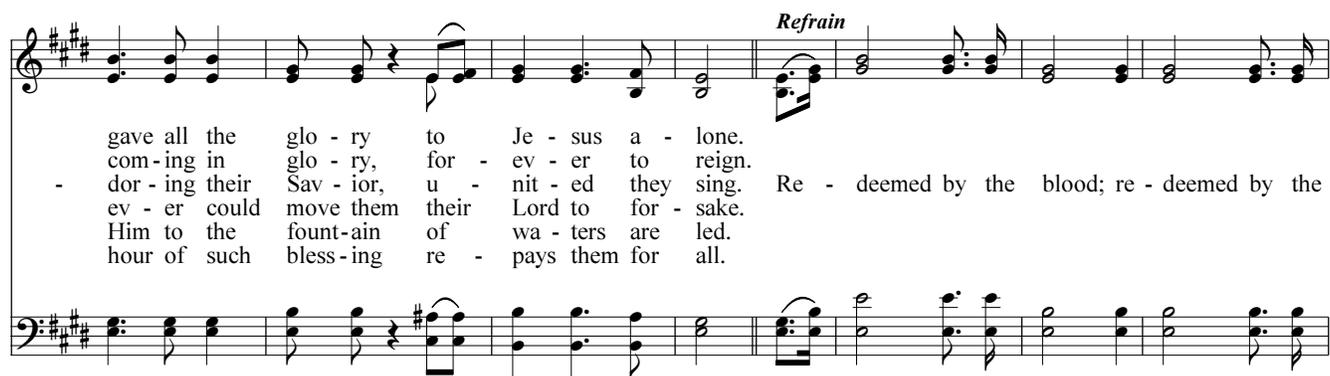

♩=113

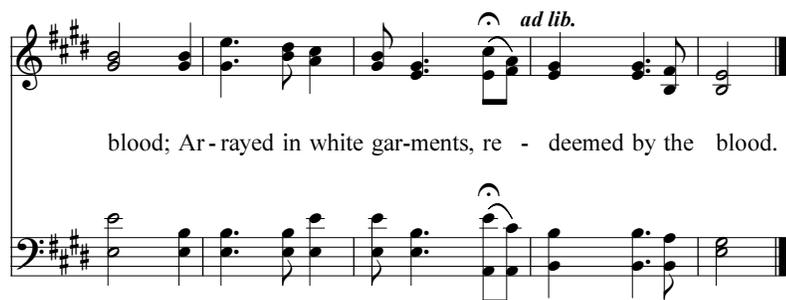

1. John saw up - on Pat - mos, a vi - sion so bright; The saints from all na - tions in
2. Sal - va - tion and hon - or and wis - dom and might And glo - ry and bless - ing, their
3. A few from the hon - ored, and no - ble by birth, The most had been hum - ble or
4. From great trib - u - la - tion they hi - ther re - pair; And vic - tors for - ev - er, God's
5. For this they are hon - ored, and serve day and night, And near - est the throne they re -
6. Their tears are all ban - ished, God wipes them a - way, En - throned in His pre - sence for - gar - ments of light, With palms and re - joic - ing be - fore the white throne, They voic - es u - nite, As - crib - ing to Je - sus, the Lamb that was slain, Soon out - casts on earth; Trans - formed by the Spir - it, their an - thems they bring, And a - glo - ry they share; From sword and from scaf - fold, from dun - geon and stake, Naught

- joice in His light; They hun - ger no more, by the Lamb they are fed; By
- ev - er they stay; What re - ward and what hon - or for ser - vice so small! One gave all the glo - ry to Je - sus a - lone.

Refrain
com - ing in glo - ry, for - ev - er to reign.
- dor - ing their Sav - ior, u - nit - ed they sing. Re - deemed by the blood; re - deemed by the ev - er could move them their Lord to for - sake.
Him to the fount - ain of wa - ters are led.
hour of such bless - ing re - pays them for all.

ad lib.
blood; Ar - rayed in white gar - ments, re - deemed by the blood.