

Never Known to Fail

Alice Jean Cleator, 1904, alt.

Herbert J. Lacey

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. O the prom - is - es of God Long have Sa - tan's might with - stood, And no
2. O the might - y hand of time Fa - shions ma - ny works sub - lime, Yet the 3. Trust those ho - ly words to - day, Let them guide you on life's way, Seek their power of dark - ness O'er them shall pre - vail; They are build - ed sure and strong For the tide of years their Splen - dor shall as - sail; But the Word of God this hour, Thrills with ref - uge in Temp - ta - tion's rough - est gale; Strength and cour - age they shall lend, Power from con - flict with the wrong, And those prom - is - es were Ne - ver known to fail. all the old - time power, For those prom - is - es were Ne - ver known to fail. God's Hea - ven shall des - cend, For those prom - is - es were Ne - ver known to fail.

Refrain

prom - is - es were Ne - ver known to fail! No power of dark - ness o'er Them shall pre - vail! They are build - ed sure and strong For the con - flict with the wrong, God's prom - is - es were Ne - ver known to fail!