

Lift Him Up

S. R. Amy, 1906

James Milton Dungan

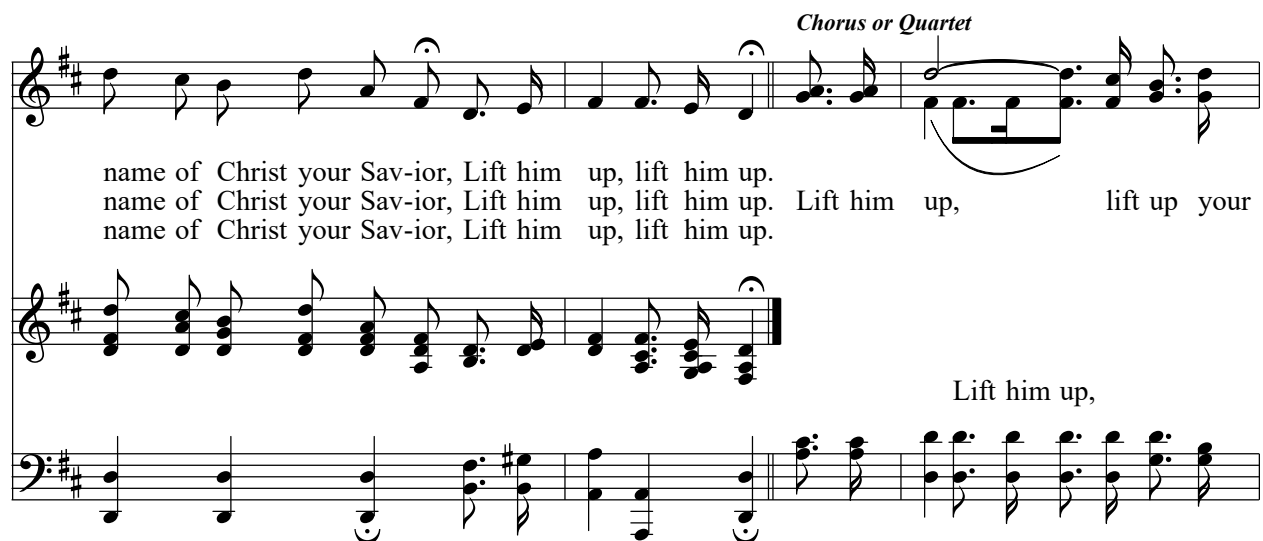

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. Your broth - er has a bur - den that is hard to bear; He
2. In God's own im - age, with a pre - cious soul to save, His
3. If you will give him cour - age and his soul is won, Your fell be - fore the tempt - er in a sin - ful snare, And he strength turned in - to weak - ness, who was once so brave; He is heart will leap with glad - ness When the work is done; One more looks to you to help him; He has drained the bit - ter cup: In the strug - gling for a foot - hold, And would fain re - nounce the cup: In the star to shine in Hea - ven, O what joy will fill your cup! In the Chorus or Quartet

name of Christ your Sav-ior, Lift him up, lift him up.
 name of Christ your Sav-ior, Lift him up, lift him up. Lift him up, lift up your name of Christ your Sav-ior, Lift him up, lift him up.

Lift him up,

bro-ther; Lift him up, lift him up; In the name of Christ your Sav-ior, Lift him up, lift him up.