

Room for the World

Charles H. Elliott, 1885

John Robson Sweney

♩=95

1. Room for the world at the cross of the Sav - ior, Room where for - give - ness He
 2. Room for the world in the fold of the Sav - ior, Room at the feast by His
 3. Room for the world in the ark of the Sav - ior, Yon - der the tem - pest is
 4. Room for the world in the arms of the Sav - ior, Room for the friend - less, the waits to be - stow; Room where so ma - ny have laid down their bur - dens, mer - cy pre - pared; Come, ye that hun - ger, His boun - ty re - ceiv - ing, sweep - ing a - pace; No one but Je - sus can shield and de - fend you, lone and op - pressed; There will He com - fort the poor and for - sak - en,

Refrain

Room at the wa - ters of cleans - ing that flow.
 Feed on the bless - ings that mil - lions have shared. Say, will you come? The Spir - it now is plead - ing;
 Haste to the shel - ter and re - fuge of grace.
 There to the wea - ry He giv - eth sweet rest.

Je - sus a - bove for you is in - ter - ced - ing: Why will you still, His ten - der love un - heed - ing,

Per - ish for - ev - er in sight of the cross?