

The Last Call

Anonymous, 1849

James Monroe Hagan

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. 'Tis the last call of mer - cy, That lin - gers for thee; Oh! sin - ner, re-
 2. If thou slight-est this warn-ing, Now of - fered at last, Thine will be the sad
 3. 'Tis the last call of mer - cy, Oh, turn not a - way, For now swift - ly
 4. 'Tis the last call of mer - cy, Oh, steel not thy heart, For now she is
 5. 'Tis the last call of mer - cy, That lin - gers for thee, Break a - way from thy

- ceive it; To Je - sus now flee! He oft - en has called thee, But mourn - ing— "The har - vest is past, Sal - va - tion I've slight - ed, The hast - eth The dread ven - geance day! The Spir - it in - vites you, And ris - ing, From earth to de - part! The Bride is now call - ing— "Ye bond - age, Oh, sin - ner, be free! Be not a sad mourn - er, "The thou hast re - fused! His of - fered sal - va - tion And love are a - bused!

 sum - mer is o'er, And now there is par - don, Sweet par - don, no more."
 pleads with you, come! Oh, come to life's wa - ters, Nor thirst - ing - ly roam!
 thirst - y souls, come!" Oh, come with the ran - somed, In Hea - ven there's room!
 har - vest is past, The sum - mer is end - ed"— And per - ish at last.