

He Trieth the Righteous

Maud Sims, 1900

Benjamin Burke Beall

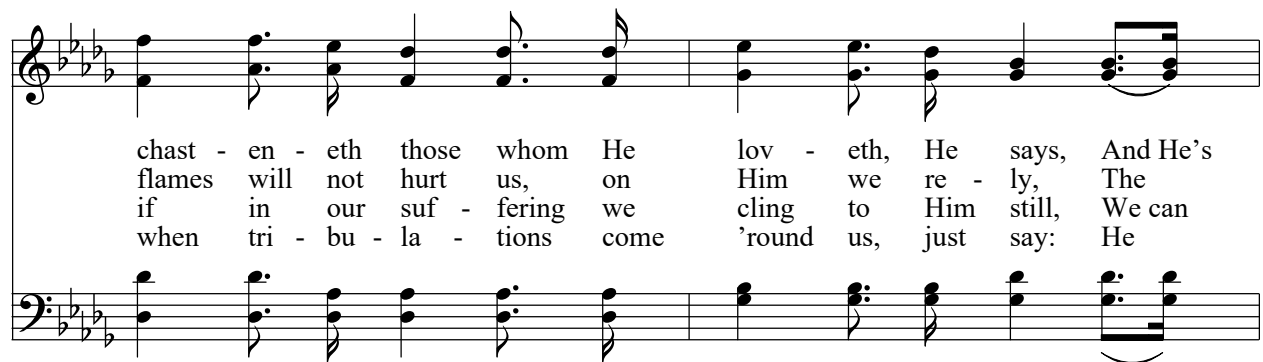

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. He tri - eth the right - eous, as Dan - iel of old, And
2. He tri - eth the right - eous, in fur - nac - es hot, And
3. He tri - eth the right - eous with sick - ness and pain, He 4. O Judge of the right - eous, help us to be strong, To midst all the tri - als He bids us be bold; He bids us walk thro' them, our faith fail - ing not; The makes us to suf - fer a - gain and a - gain; But love Thee and serve Thee, yes, all the day long; And chast - en - eth those whom He lov - eth, He says, And He's flames will not hurt us, on Him we re - ly, The if in our suf - fering we cling to Him still, We can when tri - bu - la - tions come 'round us, just say: He pro - mised to love us through - out all our days. dross He'll con - sume and the gold pur - i - fy. He bear it with pa - tience, be - cause 'tis His will.

Refrain

tri - eth the right - eous, I'm glad He tries me.

tri-eth the right-eous, His word tells me so; He tri-eth the right-eous, it must be, 'tis so; He tri-eth the right-eous, the sto-ry is old, If Thou art try-ing me Fa-ther, I'll try to come out all pure gold.