

He Is Coming, Surely Coming

Civilla Durfee Holden Martin, 1911

Charles M. Ackerman

♩=102

1. He may come in the ear - ly morn-ing, He may come at the noon-tide
2. He may come when the shades of even-ing Mark the time of the set - ting
3. Our Re - deem-er is sure - ly com-ing, Not as Sav - ior, the cross to hour; Our Re - deem-er is sure-ly com-ing, Clothed with glo - ry and match-less sun; Are you rea - dy to meet the Sav-ior? Will He greet you with His "well bear; But as king of e - ter - nal ag - es; Are you rea - dy to meet Him

Refrain

power.
done"? He is com - ing, sure-ly com - ing, Com-ing as He once as-there? He is com-ing, He is com-ing,

- cend - ed to the sky; O be rea - dy for that time, For the
to the sky;

glo-ry, grand, sub-lime, For the com-ing of the Sav-ior draw-eth night.

