

The Judgment Day (M. E. Smith)

Mollie Ellen Smith, 1916

Walter T. Smith

♩=115

1. The judg - ment day Is com - ing to each soul; Will grief be
2. I've loved ones gone To Hea - ven's land so fair; When Je - sus
3. Our sins shall all Tho' now in gloom con - cealed, Be brought to
4. O Lord, may I Be dressed in spot - less white, When I shall
5. I want to walk With - in that nar - row way, And hear "Well

Refrain

yours, While end - less ag - es roll?
calls, I'll go to meet them there. Trust on, pray on, Thro' light, When re - cords are re - vealed. pray on, Trust on, pray on reach That bless - ed land of light.
done," When comes the judg - ment day

sor-row's dark-est hour; Trust on, pray on, Fear not the tempt-er's dark-est hour; pray on, trust on, pray on,

power.
his great pow'r